

Kentucky Department of Corrections

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Mike Caudill
502.782-2345
MichaelA.Caudill@ky.gov

Amber Ryan Promoted to Assistant Supervisor in Probation & Parole District 18

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Dec. 2, 2016) – Division of Probation and Parole Director John Hall today announced the promotion of Amber Ryan to Assistant District Supervisor of District 18 in Louisville. District 18 is one of four supervision districts in Jefferson County. Ryan assumed her new duties Dec. 1.

“Amber Ryan has demonstrated the skills necessary to be a valuable addition to our leadership team,” said Hall. “I am confident she will excel in her new role.”

Ryan began her career in the criminal justice field in 2007, working as a Jefferson County Circuit Deputy Court Clerk. In 2008, she transferred to the Department of Corrections’ Division of Probation and Parole as an officer in District 18, where she supervised a felony caseload. She has served as a PORTAL facilitator and was selected to participate in the LS/CMI pilot program. In 2014, Ryan was chosen to be a member of the initial class of field training officers in the Division of Probation and Parole. In this role, she has successfully trained many new officers for the department. In 2015, she served as a member of the American Correctional Association (ACA) compliance team.

Ryan is a 2006 graduate of University of Louisville, where she earned a bachelor’s degree in administration of justice with a minor in sociology. She was a recipient of the 2010 Achievement Award.

Editor’s note: photo attached

###